Ponder these poignant and metaphoric Words from a Wise Literary Warrior whose presence for 26 years at the Roosevelt Public Library will remain Legendary:

Summer goes by so incredibly fast.

It seems that after Independent Day, we are constantly reminded of all the Fall activities and Holidays!

Carol Gilliam, revered Black Heritage Librarian, your 'summer' with us has moved incredibly fast! We are grateful for the work, commitment and passion you've exuded throughout the years in every aspect of growing one of the most sought-after collections in New York, covering all facets of Black life on the History and Culture of African-Descendants; the memorable concerts and the love you've shown Roosevelt's community over 26 Years!
We wish you the best as you continue to enjoy life's seasons and your indelible mark on the many Fall Activities and Holidays to come!
